Lever & Ecker Procures $8.8 Million Settlement During Trial for Trip and Fall Accident Victim

We are thrilled to share that after six and a half years of hard-fought advocacy, Lever & Ecker, PLLC recently procured a settlement of $8,800,000.00 for our client. Following a hotly contested liability trial in Westchester County Supreme Court, during which the defendants tried to blame our client for stepping into a pothole, the jury returned a verdict finding the defendants 100 percent liable for our client's trip and fall.

We are grateful for the trust placed in our team, which allowed us to obtain this substantial award for our client, reflecting the significant pain, suffering, and lost income she suffered as the result of a single step that changed her life forever.

David B. Lever Published Op-Ed by City Limits: Bronx Building Collapse is Wake Up Call

CITYLIMITS

Opinion: Bronx Building Collapse is a Wake-Up Call

By: David B. Lever

"It will happen again. It's not a matter of if, but when. The average building age in New York City is around 90 years, and we're grappling with a shortage of building inspectors as well as an ongoing housing crisis—giving building owners little to no incentive to address violations."

David B. Lever's insightful article, 'Bronx Building Collapse is a Wake-Up Call,' sheds light on critical issues facing tenants in New York City. As featured on City Limits (citylimits.org), which investigates significant problems and their causes in NYC, Lever's opinion underscores the urgent need for accountability and action for tenant safety in the face of neglected and dangerous buildings. ☺
